

REPORT OF EXPERIENCE AS AN IPBA SCHOLAR

Name: Nguyen Thi Hai Yen
Registration number: A004
Membership number: 2011-TN0272
Email: Yen.nh@leadcolawyers.com / Yen_luatsu@yahoo.com
Firm: LEADCO Legal Counsel

It is my honor to attend the 21st annual meeting and conference of the Inter-Pacific Bar Association (IPBA) in Japan.

The IPBA conference gave me a great opportunity to make and renew my friendship with other lawyers, to learn and share experience in legal practice, develop excellent referral and networking opportunities and further develop legal profession.

I obtained the following experiences during the Annual meeting and conference of the Inter-Pacific Bar Association in Japan:

- I shared experiences in legal practice with lawyers from many different countries. From now on, I will be able to interact with lawyers from a variety of different countries, with different legal systems and perspectives. I believe that attending this conference will truly broaden my understanding of the world and improve my ability to practice law.
- I obtained more knowledge in cross border international transactions, arbitration, banking and finance, etc. while listening to presentations, exchanging ideas and having discussion with IPBA conference participants.
- I developed a good network for my firm's business development and bridge the gap between Vietnamese and international lawyers.
- I learned more about the roles, structure and activities of IPBA. I also met many important Committee members of IPBA.
- The organization of the conference was excellent.
- I enjoyed seeing the beauty of Japan and have nice experience.

I appreciate the experience that the IPBA conference had given me, and I look forward to attending another IPBA conference in the near future.

I wish IPBA to further develop and to gain more success in its career and endeavor.

Very truly,

Hai Yen